

Patrice Brunet, LL.B., C. Dir., ASC

EDUCATION

Chartered Director (C. Dir.) The Directors College, program recognized by McMaster University Hamilton, Canada	2010
Administrateur de Sociétés Certifié (ASC) Program recognized by Laval University Quebec, Canada	2010
Quebec Law Society Ecole du Barreau du Québec Montreal, Canada	1992
Bachelor of Law (LL.B.) University of Montreal Montreal, Canada	1991
York University Faculty of Arts and Science (one year) Toronto, Canada	1988

SPORT BOARD AND MEMBER POSITIONS

Foundation of the Quebec Games Secretary and Board member	2010-2011
Canadian Olympic Committee B Session Member	1996- 2002, 2011 - Present
International Triathlon Union Committee member and legal advisor to the Executive Board	1995 – Present

Triathlon Canada
Vice-President and Board member	1993 – 2002
Triathlon Quebec
President and Board member	1990 – 1996

ARBITRATION

I have acquired an important expertise in the adjudication of sports-related arbitration disputes, both as counsel to parties, and as arbitrator.

In 2007, I was appointed Chair of the arbitration panel that heard the appeal on the doping infraction of American cyclist Floyd Landis.

I am an accredited Arbitrator with the following bodies:

- Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) – Lausanne, Switzerland
- Sport Dispute Resolution Center of Canada (SDRCC)

Sports Arbitration Training:

1997: Court of Arbitration for Sport

1999: Court of Arbitration for Sport

2001: United States Anti-Doping Agency, Court of Arbitration for Sport and Sport RED

2003: SDRCC and Court of Arbitration for Sport

2005: SDRCC and Court of Arbitration for Sport

2007: SDRCC and Court of Arbitration for Sport

2009: SDRCC and Court of Arbitration for Sport

2011: SDRCC

2013: SDRCC

2014: SDRCC and Court of Arbitration for Sport

LEADERSHIP

Recipient of the Arista-SunLife award - Professional of the Year award (1999), selected among all regulated professionals in the province of Quebec.

Finalist in Canada's Top 40 under 40 (2003).

Top 10 fundraising finalist with the 2010 Multiple Sclerosis Fundraising Campaign.

President of the 1999 World Triathlon Championships, Montreal: 1,500 athletes, international broadcast worldwide - overall management of a successful event.

Athletes' lawyer to the Canadian Olympic Team: 1996, 2002 and 2006: managed legal and internal disputes to ensure Canadian athletes focused on their performance.

MEDIA AND PUBLIC SPEAKING

Guest Speaker to a large number of organizations: Quebec Law Society, Insight Corporation, Laval Chamber of Commerce, University of Sherbrooke, McGill University, John Abbott College, Concordia University.

Recognized as an expert to express opinions with the media on 2 separate matters: International Sports Law and Immigration Law: TV, Radio and print with CBC, SRC, TVA, LCN, TQS, Global, Fox, La Presse, CKAC, Première Chaine.